- On September 14, 2015, Robin Heise motioned to approve the minutes of the July 24th Council meeting. The motion was seconded and carried.

- On September 22, 2015, Lonna McKinley motioned to pay the Ohio History Connection $1,054.48 for Archives Month poster printing and mailing costs. The motion was seconded and carried.

Treasurer’s and Membership Report
Treasure Emily Gainer reported an account balance of $11,603.01. Emily is concerned over our balance and does not want to drop below $10,000. We have 148 members as of August 2014. Please see attached reports.

Committee Reports

- Website/Public Information: Council Liaison Andrew Harris reports that so far it’s working out not having a committee chair, Andrew is able to keep up with change requests for the website. All web requests should be sent to Andrew. Please see attached reports.

- Nominating: Secretary Nathan Tallman reported for Council Member and Committee Chair Judith Weiner that no meetings of the Nominating Committee had been held since the last Council meeting. The Committee’s work will ramp up this fall and winter.

- Newsletter: Editor Gino Pasi reported that the latest newsletter had been published this week and commented that the publication schedule isn’t convenient for advertising the fall meeting with the Ohio Local History Alliance. Gino would like to conduct a survey of membership about newsletter reading interests and explore other formats, such as a news magazine.

- Educational Programming: Council Liaison Suzanne Reller thanked moderators and presenters participating in the fall meeting and welcomed Committee Chair Shelly Blundell. Shelly is exploring alternatives venues for the spring meeting as costs have risen at OCLC. It is important to have a venue located centrally in the state. It may be possible to obtain a discount by signing a multi-year contract as the Ohio Local History Alliance had done with the Holiday Inn in Worthington. The Committee is meeting regular and using a wiki. Please see attached reports.

- Awards: Vice President and Council Liaison Lonna McKinley gave the attached report.

- Advocacy and Outreach: Council Liaison Robin Heise was excited to have Jennie Thomas as Co-Chair of the committee, leading the Advocacy group. Outreach leader George Bain has requested that we send an Archives Month poster to Senator John Glenn, who is featured on the poster.

Old Business

- Committee Chairs: The Public Information Committee still lacks a Chair, but Council Liaison Andrew Harris reports that himself and the committee are handling the work. Stephanie Bricking was recommended as a Chair, Council Liaison Suzanne Reller will contact her about her interest.

New Business

- Regional Archival Association Consortium (RAAC) Proposal: George Bain has requested that SOA contact the leadership of RAAC to distribute information on the National Coalition for History’s effort to establish a History Caucus in the United States House of Representatives. Please see attached proposal. It was felt that this activity is best handled by the Society of American Archivists Issues and Advocacy Roundtable. President Jillian Carney will refer George to the Roundtable leadership.

- Ohio Resource Center (ORC) Proposal: The ORC is requesting a letter of support from President Jillian Carney in support of their grant request to the National Historical Publications and Records Commission. Please see attached proposal. Andrew Harris motioned to authorize President Jillian Carney to write a letter of support. The motion was seconded and carried.

- Cutting Costs and Raising Revenue: Many ideas for taking these measures were discussed, including no longer purchasing gifts for outgoing council members, t-shirt design contest and sales, reducing direct mail, corporate sponsorship, and educational programming.

Adjournment

Andrew Harris motioned to adjourn the meeting at 5:02pm. The motion was seconded and carried.

Mission/Summary:
The Educational Programming Committee plans the annual SOA spring conference, assists with finding volunteers for the Fall conference with the OLHA, and plans professional development workshops. Activities include choosing a conference theme, solicitation and selection of session presenters, selection of plenary speaker, publication and distribution of conference announcements, collecting conference evaluations, and planning professional development workshops of interest to members.

Goals for the Year: [tentative]
- Partner with OLHA for the Fall Conference.
- Coordinate planning for the Spring Conference.
- Investigate costs associated with the Spring Conference and explore venue options to ensure that we are cost efficient.
- Investigate new options for committee calls including web conferencing.

Ongoing Issues and Challenges:
An ongoing challenge for this committee is Spring Conference planning. Planning for the Spring Conference takes up the majority of the committee’s time leaving little time for other educational efforts.

Accomplished Goals:
1. Shelley Blundell has been appointed as the new chair of the committee.
2. The Fall Conference with the Ohio Local History Alliance will take place on October 2nd and 3rd. Sessions and speakers for the SOA track will include the a session on the I Found it in the Archives Contest including the 2015 winner; an Ask the Archivist panel; a preservation/disaster planning session with Holly Prochaska from UC; a session on digital curation with Sasha Griffin from Dennison; and a grants session with Andy Verhoff and Fred Previts. Jennie Thomas from the Rock Hall will also be speaking about a grant project to digitize the Jane Scott papers on the OLHA track.
3. Shelley Blundell with assistance from Suzanne Reller has been exploring costs and venue options for the Spring Conference and comparing prices. A date and venue still need to be determined.
4. Planning has begun for the Spring Conference. The committee will be holding monthly conference calls.
Educational Programming Committee Information on Venues

SOA Requirements for a Venue

- Two rooms with computers and overhead projection capabilities
  - Room 1: Capacity for 90+
  - Room 2: Capacity for 40-50
- Catering
  - Continental Breakfast

  - Break
- Area for registration table, silent auction, posters
- Wifi
- Venue Availability in May 2016: Best dates – May 6, 20, 27 (Kent State Commencement is the weekend of the 13th)

Preliminary Findings

OCLC room costs are reasonable compared to other venues, but their catering prices are higher, especially for breakfast prices. There are less expensive facilities out there, but their location is not as convenient as OCLC.

Recommendations

Option 1: Stick with OCLC, try to reduce costs through less expensive food options, find a sponsor for lunch or increase registration costs

Option 2: Explore options with Ashland University, Possibly decrease registration costs to account for attendees who may need to stay overnight somewhere

Mission/Summary:
The Advocacy and Outreach Committee is comprised of two subcommittees: Advocacy and Outreach. The Advocacy subcommittee is responsible for promoting advocacy in response to legislative issues that may impact archives, diversity, and the role of archives and archivists within society. The Advocacy subcommittee will facilitate access to resources that will aid archivists in advocating for the profession and collections to administrators and institutional stakeholders. It also communicates news from the National Coalition for History. The Outreach subcommittee is responsible for advocating the importance of archives throughout the state of Ohio through programmatic planning such as Statehood Day, Archives Month, and the I Found it in the Archives contest.

Goals for the Year:

- Increase institutional participation in Archives Month activities;
- Increase awareness, to public and legislators, of Archives Month activities within the state;
- Increase institutional participation in the “I Found it in the Archives” contest.

Ongoing Issues and Challenges:

- Increasing institutional participation in Archives Month activities;
- Increasing awareness, to public and legislators, of Archives Month activities within the state;
- Increasing institutional participation in the “I Found it in the Archives” contest.

Accomplished Goals:

- Successfully held the 2015 State-wide “I Found It In the Archives” contest;
- Designed and printed the 2015 Archives Month poster;
- Promoted Ohio History Connection’s Legislative Action Center;
- Set up table at Ohio Statehood Day and help promote CARMA’s proposed legislative changes.
This is a request for SOA to contact the leadership of the Regional Archival Associations Consortium (RAAC) asking it (either the Advocacy Subcommittee chair or the group’s co-chairs) to distribute information to the RAAC member groups to urge these groups to support the National Coalition for History’s effort to establish a History Caucus in the US House of Representatives.

The National Coalition for History (NCH) is the primary advocacy group currently available for archival groups. SAA is one of its major supporting organizations and a few RAAC groups are members. One of NCH’s main goals—working with Members of Congress—this year is to foster a History Caucus that has the potential to advance legislative objectives helpful to the historical community. By having interested members familiarize themselves with the work of agencies such as NARA, the NHPRC, the NEH, the IMLS, the easier it will be over time to promote our interests or to stymie efforts detrimental to our interests (e.g., the current effort to preserve NHPRC’s budgetary allocation). So far it has proven a struggle to interest enough Congressional representatives to join the effort. (This is the second Congress with which NCH has worked on this goal.) According to NCH an ideal number of members for the caucus would be approximately 50 but as of early September the number is less than 25.

This is where regional archival groups could prove very helpful. Sometimes it only takes a handful of constituents to get an elected official’s attention. If regional associations adopt this effort as an advocacy objective and encourage their members to make contacts, it is very possible that more will join the Congressional History Caucus. (Conversely, it would do as well to express appreciation for MC’s who have joined.)

The NCH’s web site <historycoalition.org> has information about this effort, including a statement on why this is important and a list of those members who have joined in the Congress, the names of the leaders for the caucus, and a link to the “Dear Colleague” letter sent to all members.
Ohio Resource Center proposal
Submitted by: Daniel Langdon

Jillian,

By way of quick introduction, I serve as the Social Studies Content specialist at The Ohio Resource Center, and I am partnering with the Jodie Engle and Betsy Hedler at the Ohio History Connection to submit a grant proposal to the National Historic Records Preservation Commission. ORC is housed in the College of Education and Human Ecology at The Ohio State University. We professionally review classroom resources, content supports, apps, collections and digital textbooks to provide Ohio’s teachers quick reviews and easy access to effective, standards-aligned free resources. I also serve as the Executive Director of the Ohio Council for the Social Studies.

The National Historic Records Preservation Commission has competitive grants in several categories. The Ohio Resource Center and the Ohio History Connection have elected to pursue a grant to develop effective classroom resources and professional development for teachers to promote student use of archives and digital collections sponsored by archives. I am writing to you in your role as the President of the Society of Ohio Archivists to explore the possibility of SOA writing a letter of support for our grant. I recognize that the information below may be too brief to take to your Board, so I would welcome the opportunity to discuss this request by phone to answer any questions you may have.

Research and classroom experience indicate:

• While there are resources for teaching and promoting general research plans/approaches (The Big Six comes to mind), most of the specific resources to promote the use of archived materials is not classroom-friendly. Many focus on a level of details and complexity that would appeal only to those conducting advanced research projects, and would take more time to introduce and use than most social studies classroom teachers are able to devote for research projects they embed within a course.

  o ORC and OHC will draw from resources of the Society of American Archivists, the Library of Congress, and the National Archives to create classroom-friendly resources that effectively promote the use of archives but also reflect the time constraints teachers face and the need for student-friendly language and depth of detail. In addition to face-to-face workshops for teacher, librarians, and local history collection specialists, our trainings and resources would be translated into a digital professional development module that will be free to teachers and students.

• Students growing up in the age of Google and other search engines are reluctant to explore beyond the initial results, partly because they don’t understand what archives are, why they should access them, and how to access them.

• College and career-ready standards in Ohio and the Common Core Standards in English/Language Arts for Literacy in Social Studies emphasize the need for students to effectively locate information from a variety of sources and interpret primary sources.

• Key archives like the Library of Congress archives and the National Archives (NARA) have responded to teachers and students in the past by organizing collections of resources for them. While this is laudable at one level, it also leaves many students prepared only to use resources others have culled for them, gimmicking the Google issue. We believe college and career ready students must be able to identify sources of information for themselves and develop skills to access those resources in order to critically think about information they see presented in the media and by campaigns.
Ohio Resource Center proposal
Submitted by: Daniel Langdon

If awarded, the 18 month grant would allow us to develop materials, host professional development for a pilot group of teachers, refine materials and professional development based on the pilot results, offer professional development to 40 teachers, librarians, and local history site administrators, and finally convert the training and resources into a free online module for teachers and students.

We believe that providing the right classroom-friendly resources will encourage teachers to include archival searches as part of their research projects and will remove both the mystery surrounding and the daunting nature of archival searches for students. This will promote student skills in purposefully identifying and selecting resources from digital archives and collections, rather than accepting search engine results or resources selected by a third party as their main source of information.

I look forward to speaking with you about our grant proposal.

Best Regards,

Dan Langen
