

Society of Ohio Archivists

Founded in 1968, the Society of Ohio Archivists' mission is to exchange information, coordinate activities, and improve professional competence in Ohio's archives and manuscript repositories.

Membership in the society is open to the public, and we invite you to join.

Working for You

The Society of Ohio Archivists is an active organization with a vibrant membership.

SOA promotes:

- the collection, preservation, and availability of manuscript and archival resources
- cooperation with professionals in related fields
- importance of archival resources to historians, students, and genealogists
- archival awareness through such activities as Archives Month and History Day

SOA provides:

- education at workshops and conferences
- networking at the annual meeting and through the email listserv
- scholarships for students and new professionals to attend the annual meeting
- access to The Ohio Archivist, the society's online newsletter
- recognition to outstanding individuals and organizations through the Merit Award
- Archives Month poster mailed to all members in October

Levels of Membership & Benefits

Individual & Student: voting rights at the annual business meeting and discounts at events

Bridge: (for individuals who are no longer students but are not yet employed, or those who are currently unemployed) voting rights at the annual business meeting and discounts at events

Patron & Sponsor: individual benefits and provide additional support to fund special projects

Institutional: discounts for up to two employees at events

What Members Say:

As a member of SOA, I find most valuable the comradery and information sharing between all of us. Everyone possesses some unique aspect of knowledge and is so giving - it makes our jobs easier! — Pam Eyerdam

I find the friendships and the ability to network with other SOA members to be very valuable. It is also awesome to be able to catch up with other Ohio archivists at the Annual Meeting. — Jeremy Feador

I love how accessible the Society of Ohio Archivists is. It is great to be able to network with my peers and attend the annual meeting (where I always learn something valuable) without incurring the travel costs of a regional or national conference. — Susan Miller
