

Let the music move you...

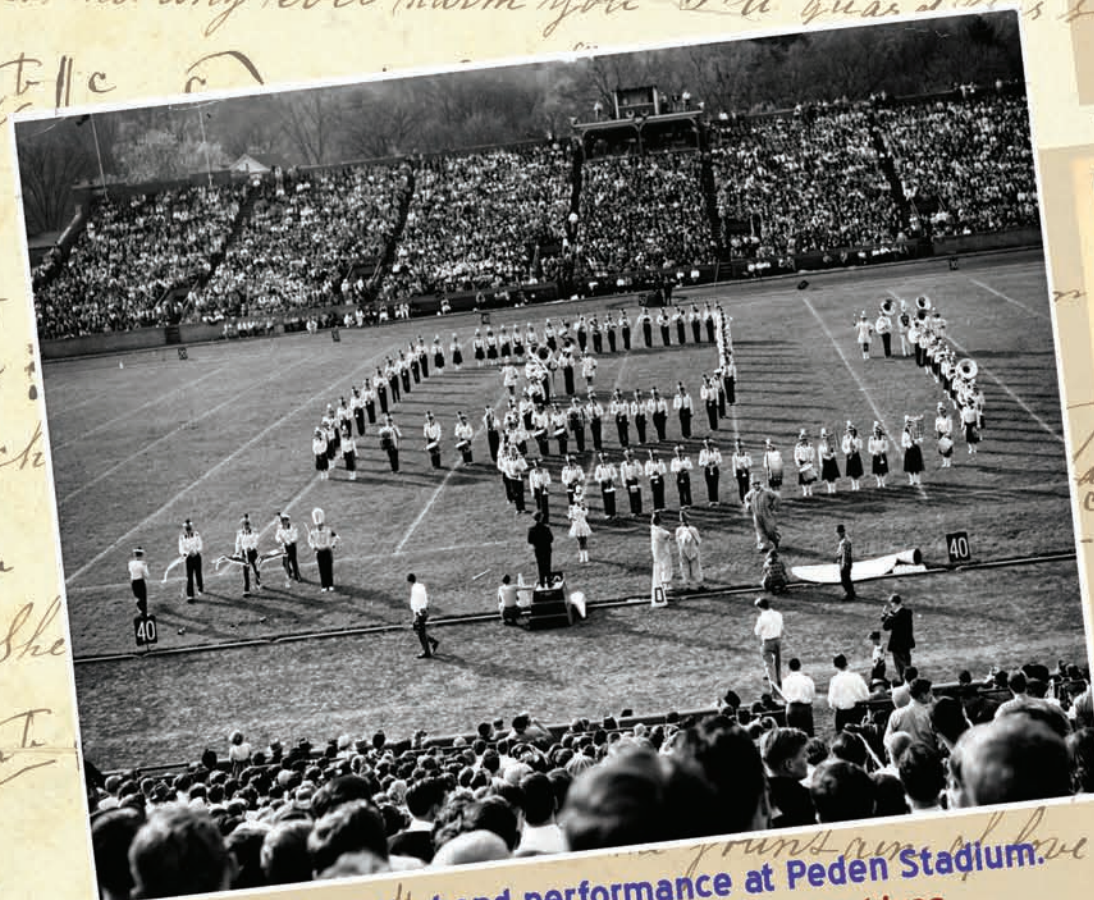

Ohio Archives Month October 2010

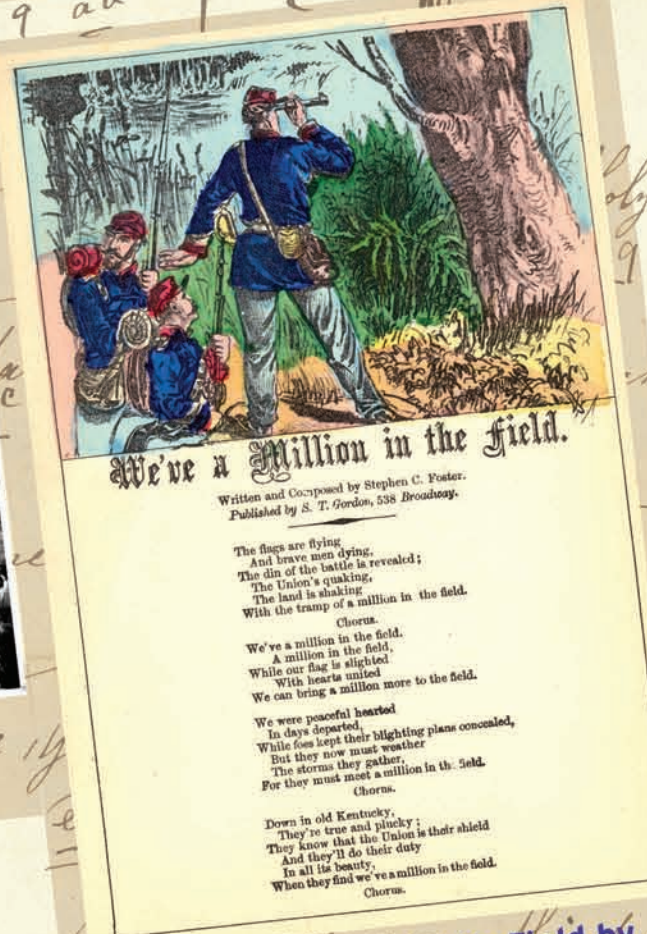

Dr. Paul Katz, Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra founder and long time musical director, conducting the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra in the 1950s.
Courtesy of the Wright State University Special Collections and Archives

Western Reserve University College for Women Guitar and Mandolin Club, 1899.
Courtesy of the Case Western Reserve Archives

Ohio University band performance at Peden Stadium.
Courtesy of the Ohio University Archives

We've A Million in the Field by Stephen Foster.
Courtesy of the University of Cincinnati Archives

KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE GIRLIE YOU LOVE

Keep Your Eye on the Girlie You Love sheet music by Ira Schuster, Howard Johnson and Alex Gerber, 1916.
Courtesy of the Cleveland Public Library

Denison University band performing in 1940.
Courtesy of the Denison University Archives

WVVO Disc jockey James Edward "Eddie" Saunders at piano with famous jazz musicians Nat King Cole, Duke Ellington and Sara Vaughn.
Courtesy of the Ohio Historical Society

The Sandusky Boy's and Girl's Band, founded in 1924. The band is pictured here in 1928.
Courtesy of the Sandusky Library

OHIO HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Society of Ohio Archivists

Ohio Historical Records Advisory Board

Ohio Archives Month is a program of the Society of Ohio Archivists and is sponsored by the Ohio Historical Records Advisory Board and the Ohio Historical Society.
Visit us online at: <http://www.ohioarchivists.org>