

Reunions: Together at the Archives

Ohio Archives Month October 2007

Eating watermelon at the Logan County Fairgrounds.
Courtesy of the Logan County Historical Society.

A reunion of friends at the Western College for Women.
Courtesy of Western College Memorial Archives, Miami University Libraries.

Vinton County Homecoming celebration in McArthur, Ohio, taken in 1924.
Courtesy of the Ohio Historical Society.

Mexican War Veterans ribbon, probably worn by James Fowler Chapman, a native of Medina County.
Courtesy of Sandusky Library.

Theta Chi fraternity brothers cheer for their float in the 1965 University of Cincinnati homecoming parade.
Courtesy of the University of Cincinnati.

In April 1955, Western Reserve University and Cleveland's WEWS cooperated in the first reunion of college or university alumni ever held on television.
Courtesy of Case Western Reserve University Archives.

Smith family reunion in Barnesville, Ohio.
Courtesy of the Ohio Historical Society.

Souvenir badge sold during the 1924 Sandusky "Home Coming" celebrations.
Courtesy of Sandusky Library.

Society of Ohio Archivists

OHIO HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Ohio Archives Month is a program of the Society of Ohio Archivists and is sponsored by the Ohio Historical Records Advisory Board and the Ohio Historical Society.

Visit us online at <http://www.ohioarchivists.org>