Reunions: Together at the Archives

Ohio Archives Month
October 2007

- Sowing watermelon at the Logan County Fairgrounds. Courtesy of the Logan County Historical Society.
- Mexican War Veterans ribbon, probably worn by James Fowler Chapman, a native of Medina County. Courtesy of Sandusky Library.
- Souvenir badge sold during the 1924 Sandusky Homecoming celebrations. Courtesy of Sandusky Library.
- Smith family reunion in Barnesville, Ohio. Courtesy of the Ohio Historical Society.
- In April 1955, Western Reserve University and Cleveland's WEWS cooperated in the first reunion of college or university alumni ever held on television. Courtesy of Case Western Reserve University Archives.
- Eating watermelon at the Logan County Fairgrounds. Courtesy of the Logan County Historical Society.
- Vinton County Homecoming celebration in McArthur, Ohio, taken in 1924. Courtesy of the Ohio Historical Society.
- Theta Chi fraternity brothers cheer for their float in the 1965 University of Cincinnati homecoming parade. Courtesy of the University of Cincinnati.
- A reunion of friends at the Western College for Women. Courtesy of Western College Memorial Archives, Miami University Libraries.

Ohio Archives Month is a program of the Society of Ohio Archivists and is sponsored by the Ohio Historical Records Advisory Board and the Ohio Historical Society. Visit us online at http://www.ohioarchivists.org