

MIAMI VALLEY ARCHIVES ROUNDTABLE ARCHIVES CRAWL 2016

The Miami Valley Archives Roundtable Archives Crawl is an event held during the month of October to celebrate National Archives Month. Crawlers tour host archives in the Dayton and Cincinnati areas gathering stamps in their passports. Participants will have the opportunity to view a variety of treasures preserved in area archival repositories, visit with archivists, and go on special behind-the-scenes tours, depending on the specific repositories that you visit.

Details

When: Throughout the month of October 2016 (contact individual repositories for hours of operations)

Cost: FREE

#MVARArchivesCrawl2016

October is American Archives Month-an opportunity to raise awareness about the value of archives and archivists. The Miami Valley Archives Roundtable is sponsoring an Archives Crawl in the Dayton and Cincinnati areas.

Each of the host repositories has its own unique collection full of interesting pieces of local history. Take this opportunity to visit some of these archival repositories and learn about the treasures they preserve.

The goal of the Archives Crawl is to visit as many of the participating repositories as possible during the month of October and have each of them stamp your passport. Be sure to visit each repositories' website and/or social media page for their regular hours of operation.

Crawlers who visit at least five participating repositories will win a $10 gift certificate to Carillon Brewery (can only be used towards food purchases) and will be entered into a drawing for a first-place prize of a $100 Gaylord Archival gift certificate. The second-place prize will be a Greene County stuffed pilot bear.

Please note that current employees, volunteers, or contractors of any of the participating repositories are not eligible to win any of the prizes.

Seidenberg is a professor of professional practice at the University of Southern California's Annenberg School for Communication and Journalism, and Short is an artist, educator and photographer based in Los Angeles. Both are alumni of Antioch College. They will present their work collecting and telling stories of the Vietnam War and its legacies. Together they have produced the oral history/photo project: A Matter of Conscience: GI Resistance During the Vietnam War (published in 1992), and Memories of the American War: Stories From Viet Nam, in which they gathered the stories of Vietnamese people and their experiences during the war with the Americans.

“The WYSO Archives is a unique resource for students and faculty at Antioch and area colleges, since most of the recordings demonstrate the seminal role that the Miami Valley has played in events of national significance,” noted Antioch College assistant professor of History and WYSO Civil Rights Oral History Project Coordinator, Dr. Kevin McGruder.

Other speakers include representatives from the American Archive of Public Broadcasting at WGBH in Boston, the Library of Congress, Ohio History Connection, and colleges and universities from around the country who will present in a variety of formats including Pecha Kucha -style talks.

Historians, teachers, students, and interested community members are invited to register for the symposium here: <http://wyso.org/past-made-present-2016-wyso-archives-digital-humanities-symposium#stream/0>

Public radio station WYSO 91.3 is licensed to Antioch College with studios in Yellow Springs. It broadcasts on multiple platforms: 91.3 FM, live streaming at WYSO.org, on HD radio and on the Public Radio Player, a mobile application. WYSO is the Miami Valley's only NPR News station with programming from NPR, Public Radio International, American Public Media, PRX and the BBC as well as the work of local and independent radio producers.
