

PUBLIC HISTORY SYMPOSIUM

[Courtesy of the Library of Congress]

The Wright State University History Department's eighth annual Public History Graduate Symposium will be held Thursday, April 11th, 2019. Dr. Paul Lockhart (WSU) will give the keynote address, "Living History as Public History," and current Public History students and alumni will showcase internships, projects, and ongoing research. This event is free and open to the public.

- ▶ Student and alumni research presentations
- ▶ Keynote speaker on Living History
- ▶ Networking opportunity

When: April 11th, 2019

Where: Student Union, Endeavor Room

Time: 8:45 am - 4:00 pm

Other: The event is free and open to the public, with no advanced reservation required. Free parking is available in the visitor parking lot in front of the Student Union.

Please direct questions to Dr. Drew Swanson drew.swanson@wright.edu