

Society of OHIO ARCHIVISTS

The Society of Ohio Archivists (SOA) is pleased to announce four scholarships available to students (2 awards), and new archival professionals (2 awards) with three years or less experience in the workplace.

The scholarship consists of registration to the SOA Annual Meeting (including lunch), a one-year membership to SOA, and a $100 travel stipend. Awardees are required to submit a photograph and write about their experience for publication in the Ohio Archivist newsletter.

Applications should include the following information:

- * Applicant's name, mailing address, and e-mail address.
- * Students should list their school's name and academic program;
- * New professionals should list their employer and number of years working within the field;
- * Description about how the meeting will benefit the applicant professionally;
- * Brief description of the applicant's scholarship and contribution to archives. This will be taken into consideration along with the applicant's number of years in the field or academic study;
- * Statement of the applicant's need for financial support to attend the conference;
- * Applications are due by April 8, 2022.

Applications and inquiries can be sent via e-mail or mail to Stephanie Shreffler, sshreffler1@udayton.edu, Roesch Library RM 304A, 300 College Park, Dayton, OH 45469-1360.

The awards will be presented at the Society of Ohio Archivists Annual meeting, which is planned to be held in-person in Columbus on May 20, 2022. Masks will be required for attendance at the in-person annual meeting in accordance with the Columbus Metropolitan and City of Columbus policies. Attendees must also provide proof of COVID-19 vaccination or a negative COVID-19 test taken less than 72 hours before the conference. These requirements may be subject to change.
